

Christchurch Mansion: Colour Shape Pattern

Christchurch Mansion is a historic house with art and furniture.
The Colour Shape Pattern exhibition is inside Christchurch Mansion.
This means it is a place where I can find out about prints, sculpture and painting.

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion outside I might see:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

Trees

People enjoying the park

How big the building is

Signs

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might see:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

Coloured lights

Sculptures

Display cases

Museum staff in uniform

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might see:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

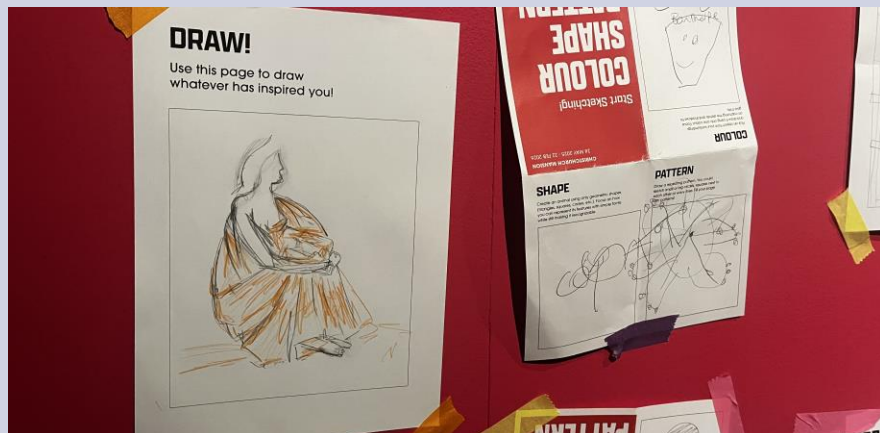

Colourful wallpaper

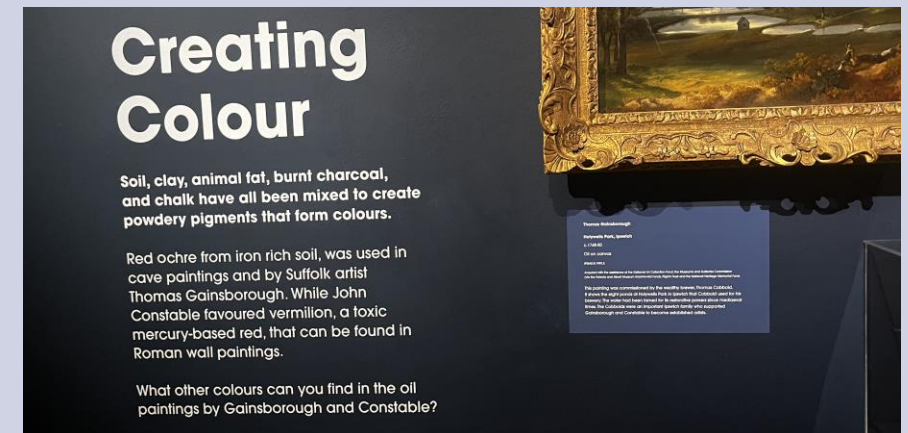

Framed paintings and prints

Drawings by other visitors

Information panels and labels

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might hear:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

People talking

Radio controls

Footsteps on the wooden floor

Creaky doors

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might feel:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

The wallpaper

Wooden doors

Laminated sheets

Wooden floors

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might smell:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

Chips

Cleaning fluid

The Mansion toilets

Baking from the cafe

When I visit the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition at Christchurch Mansion I might taste:

Colchester+Ipswich
Museums

Cakes from the cafe

Tea/Coffee from the cafe

Chips from the cafe

Cold drinks from the cafe

Most of all, the Colour Shape Pattern exhibition is where I can enjoy art, prints and creativity.

